"Greetings to you Beloved Ones, I come forward from Spirit on this day Beloved Ones, to bring many blessings of great Light. I bring forward the understanding that as you connect at this period, the development of the coming forward of the full Moon, it is an experience of coming forward to the preparation.

"It is on this day Beloved Ones, that I come forward with many blessings of great Love to support and assist you through procedure of moving forward through your Light and connectedness with Spirit. I support and serve you on this day, in order to go forward through the understanding of the preparatory period of moving forward through the connection of the Wesak procedures.

"It is in the understanding Beloved Ones at this time, that you open your heart into the connectedness and the moving forward into the experience of great Love, through the connection with Spirit. The understanding and the preparation of moving forward, through the connectedness of Lord Buddha, I bring forward on this day the presence of Buddha, but it is in the understanding through the capacity of connection, there begins to be great shift over coming days' experience, in the understanding of bringing forward Beings of Light that support and serve in different manner.

"So it is Beloved Ones on this day that you move into the preparation of experience to align with Spirit, to align with your pathway of ascension, to align with your pathway within the connectedness of Earth, the connectedness of Spirit, the experience of the connectedness with the Star system. I bring forward the presence of Beings of Light from the connectivity of Venus, of Orion and through the presence of the understanding of Great Bear, the connectivity of Sirius.

"So it is Beloved Ones, on this day as you begin to allow for yourselves to let go of all experience that has taken place within your physicality, to let go within the experience of the moving. It is to feel firstly, the connection of the physical form and begin to feel yourselves as you let go into an experience, as if it is to move in downward motion through stepping position. To move through this position of the 12 step, to move downward, as you begin to feel yourself in this connection, to find yourself to move downward through one connectivity to another, as it continues forward through 12 position.

"So it is as you let go further, the connection on each occasion Beloved Ones, that you move into the experience of greater peace, greater experience of bliss and joy through the presence of Spirit. As you let go through this experience, it is to allow yourselves to move into the feeling state of stillness. The stillness of your being, the connectedness of each of the energy centre of your being, the understanding that you move forward through a great shift, into the experience of vehicle of Light and as you connect with the energy of Merkaba, begin to feel the energy field surrounding you.

“It is the understanding that many of yourselves move forward through the experiences of finding yourselves moving through a time frame, that is of a continuation of great speed. It is through everyday experience at this time, all that you do and all that you experience, it is as if it is appearing, as if it is the missing periods of many days or many month, but it is to understand, to find yourselves with the ability at this time, to shift through the experience, through time and space, into the understanding of the expansiveness of your Light.

“As we connect further through preparation of beginnings of this period and as I continue to come forward to communicate with yourselves with visualisations, to take you forward into the understandings of the reconnection to the period that has once been. The connection of the return of the feeling state to the Golden Era of Light, the Golden presence of connectivity, of Beings to Earth, this period that you begin to have the ability to access through the development of the creation of further portals of Light.

“So it is Beloved Ones that I serve you in this manner, to continue forward on your pathway, in whichever areas it is that you develop and work and find yourselves in the fulfilment of being, to work forward into the expansiveness of time frame, into the understanding of the opening further of the portals of Light, to create the development of the connectivity of the presence of the Godhead, in your experience of physicality.

“Beloved Ones it is at this time to let go into the experience of peace, to shift through the consciousness. Allowing yourselves to let go entirely, into the connectedness of peace, the joy of Love, of the experience of the feeling state of movement in Light.

“The movement in Light, to assist to take you forward in the etheric, to connect at position that is on the pathway forward to the connection of the Wesak Valley, the connection of ancient Tibet. The position at this time that we work over coming day, to experience the connection further, of the shifting of the feminine energy into new environment, the holding of the position of Light, that begins to shift.

“So it is for this period we begin the procedure further, to connect in this position, to awaken further Light and to awaken the energy of the Earth, that is in the connectedness of the Goddess energy.

“Beloved Ones as you find yourselves coming forward into the etheric in this position, it is as if it is on Earth, the feeling state of standing in a position, that you are entirely alone, through the experience of the Light of the Moon. The ability to see at this time, from position, the beginnings, it is of the rays of the Sun from one position and a development of the raising of the Moon.

"As you find yourself in this position, it is alone Beloved Ones, to feel a connectedness of the Light and presence of your development, to go forward with intent and as you move through the experience, merely to find yourselves in the beauty, in the connectedness, of an area that is covered with water. An area that is covered – it is at this period of the grassland of the connectivity of ancient Tibet.

"It is of the ability to see as if it is in the physical of the connection of the mountain, that is covered with the snow of connectedness. In all aspect you have the ability to find all season in one position and through the connectedness of the presence of the Moon and the Sun, so it is in all aspect of physicality of the Earth.

"So it is as we bring forward, it is as you feel the connectedness of the peace of environment, the joy of the connection of your intent as a Soul being to come forward to Earth. You have the ability to feel the presence of your connectedness to your Higher aspect of being, to the Monad, to the Higher Self, to the Soul, to the Over Soul and to the Monad and through the connectedness of the pathway of Light.

"As you begin to feel this connectedness taking place, there begins to be felt awakening in your heart – as there is the development in the surroundings of the building, it is of an area of portal of Light that begins from the ground that begins to filter upward, to create a Pyramidal form of Light surrounding you and as it begins to develop piece by piece, it awakens and through the position within portal of Light, as it is of vast area that there begins to come forward.

"It is firstly the connectedness, it is of the presence of Divine Mother, the connectedness of the presence of the feminine of the Godhead. The experience of connectedness of the Being of Light to come forward, to be within your presence and as you begin to find the connectedness of the presence with this Being alone, the ability to feel the expansiveness of development from within.

"So it is as you begin to feel the communication, the Light from the presence of connectedness in your heart. In the connectedness of the understanding as you open through the pathway of enlightenment.

"At this time Beloved Ones, so it is you begin to feel the presence of the Godhead in the masculine. Through the experience of the connectedness, that we come forward to stand at your side, to begin the procedures to allow for the welcoming of communication of Beloved Buddha at this time, in celebration of Being of Light that serves you, to awaken through the understanding of having been in physicality, of being in physical life experience.

“So it is the coming forward of the presence of the energy field first, to feel the connectedness through the energy of Light, allow for yourselves to feel it Beloved Ones. Through the connectedness of the Light energy, you begin to feel the expansiveness of the letting go of the feeling state of your form. It begins to drift into the experience of the Lightness, the Lightness of connectedness.

“As the form raises through the state of consciousness, through the pathway of connection of enlightenment, so it is the opening of the energy centre, that you feel begins to move and expand from your presence in unconditional Love.

“So it is at this time that I bring forward the presence within the feminine, of the Goddess of Venus, the presence of the Divine Being that is Quan Yin, the presence of the masculine energy of Being that is in the form for this position, the connectedness of Sanat Kumara and in this formation, so it is you begin to feel in the surroundings of your being, to find the stillness and peace within your heart, to feel the awakening of the energy field of the unravelling of the psychic energy of this position of ancient Tibet.

“The ancient energy that awakens further, to begin the shift into the feminine and through this pathway, you begin to feel it in your being, that you support the pathway forward, for the opening of the consciousness in this manner.

“So it is through the connectedness of Beings in your surroundings, allow for yourselves to feel the presence, Beloved Lord Buddha to come forward, not only through energy field at this time, but through the presence of great Light, to come forward. You feel the connectedness of two hands, to come to take your hands within them and for the feeling state of the connectedness of the awakening of the energy centres above the head.

“At same period it is the feeling state of not perhaps understanding, of the connectedness of a form, the knowledge that it takes place, the alignment and presence to be felt in Divine Love. The supportive energy of Divine Love to surround you, to surround Lord Buddha, in order to awaken the pathway further, for Being of Light to assist further in a development, to move beyond the experience not ever connected with in the past. The ability to awaken all of humanity and as it is in the stillness, the ability to feel time to stand still, the ability to move through all experiences that you have ever experienced, through physical lifetimes upon Earth.

“As it begins to filter through your presence and come forward, it might come forward in vision or symbol or movement of sound and Light. The connectedness of knowingness and as you move through the connectedness, as there begins to form in the surrounding energy of Light, it is a field of Light and sound and connectedness that you raise above, to see all before you, in the connectedness of Divine Love with Spirit, with the Godhead. Allow yourself to shift through the experience of pure connectedness of enlightenment.

“The consciousness of the presence of the Divine Lotus begins to awaken through consciousness and within your being, that begins to be felt and move. Allowing yourself to experience the openings, the portals of consciousness, the portals of Light upon the Earth, for all to move within the experience of the great shift upon the planet.

“For many beings at this time to feel the connectedness to come together with the desire to communicate through Light, to communicate through Love, to communicate through intent. The ability to begin the awakening, firstly within the connectedness of the self and all who come forward, all who come forward into the experience of your presence, into the experience of understanding of the movement of the Earth.

“You have worked through the preparation, through the healing positions, through the connectedness of the water, of the Earth and the moving forward through the connection of Spirit, through the Star system of communication of that which takes place above to below and through the expansiveness at this time, you begin in preparation to move forward through the teachings and understandings of the pathway of ascension in the living state, to continue forward for the experience of expansiveness, to allow for the return of the Golden Light energy of peace and of Love.

“Allow yourselves as you feel the connectedness to the area that is Sirius, the connectedness to Venus, to Orion. The presence of all Beings to be at your side, the expansiveness of understanding through the pathways that open, through the connectedness of these position in the Star system and as you begin to feel the filtering of the experience of Light to surround you and the vehicle that begins to be felt in the surroundings of the area of the ascension energy centre.

“It is a movement of Light energy that spins and connects to the awakening of your being. As there comes forward the energy field of the Star system to support you, as you raise your consciousness through the dimension, with an ability to experience, to feel and see and act in the presence of a dimension not ever before experienced. Allowing yourselves to continue through the feeling state of connectedness.

“So it is and so it continues to be through the presence of Light of the Godhead, the awakening passage of Light that opens, the shift of the planetary experience of all who dwell upon it, beginning to feel the desire and intent, to move through the shift of the connectedness to the pathway of Light.

“So as you still remain, to feel the presence of the hands within the hands of Buddha, the intent always to bring forward to Earth, peace, Light and bliss, the relinquishing of all fear and control. The movement forward through the expansiveness of Divine Love, the connectedness with Spirit is felt.

“It is through the coming forward of position, the abilities to know and understand through the pathway that continues. From this preparation period, there begins to be the experience of connectivity, to the many Beings of Light further. All moving forward through similar position of expansiveness on this day, in preparation, all moving forward through the expansiveness of their desire and intent over many experiences of physicality, of experiences of lifetimes beyond lifetimes, in the joy and celebration, of being in a position to experience through the pathway of Light, in this incarnation.

“So it is to feel it in the joy and celebration of connectedness, the joy and celebration, of an ability of many Beings of the ancient Atlantean period, to awaken through the connectedness of Tiamat, the awakening of consciousness once more.

“So it is Beloved Ones, in Love and in peace, you begin to find yourselves in the experience of the connectedness of the Monad. The connectedness of the Monad, to touch your presence, with an ability to move through the understandings of all you have brought forward through your intent of understanding of all physical experiences.

“So it comes forward over coming period, to connect through the presence of the Metatronic Light, that you are supported in the bliss state, to connect through the pathway of enlightenment.

“Beloved Ones as you begin to filter through the experience, to hold the resonance of the dimension that you have shifted through, allowing yourselves to feel the connectedness. It is to bring forward to the feeling state of the presence of the Lord Buddha before you, the presence of Beings to surround you, of the Godhead. As we work together as One, to feel and hold the resonance further, on your pathway of Light in physicality.

“Allow for the re-connectedness, it is gently through the experience of movement. As it is you have allowed for all experience to take place through the elasticity of time, to bring forward all knowledge of all ancient periods, to the connection within at this time. To hold the experience of the Light energy of dimension within your being, as you begin to allow for the experience to connect. It is to connect in your heart of physical form.

“It is you feel the same experience of the Light energy that surrounds you, the movement of connectedness of Lord Buddha in your heart, as you hold your hands together, in the experience of connectedness further.

“So it is as a continuation, the presence of the Star system that surrounds and connects with you, the messages of Light that have been brought forward through the connectedness, to offer guidance and support in the holding of energy further, on your pathway of Light.

“Allow for yourselves to feel the connectedness of your form, as you find yourself in the position from whence you have begun, begin to feel through the consciousness that you are in the position that has the highest state of connectedness from whence you have begun.

“To hold the resonance of Light further, allowing for yourselves to feel it in your heart. So each Being of Light to surround you still, to hold you over coming period that remains with you, to feel the Love of intent and the blessings of Love to support and so it is.

“I greet you in great Love from Spirit. I greet you in great Love and peace and tranquillity to hold your Divinity within.

“I am Osiris.”
